

Regional Alfalfa Production Workshop

"Information to help producers improve their management decisions"

Friday, August 14th, 2009
Lubbock, Texas

Meeting at the Texas Boys Ranch

- Northeast of Lubbock on U.S. 62/82 (1.5 miles outside Loop 289) then north 2 miles on CR 2800
- Or I-27 exit 11 then east on FM 1294 ~5 miles to Liberty Gin, then 3.5 miles south on CR 2800

Registration begins at 8:30

Program, 9:00 AM-12:30 PM

$20 Registration fee covers Alfalfa Crop Book and snacks ($25 per couple)

8:30 AM Registration

9:00 Alfalfa agronomics, Calvin Trostle, Lubbock, and David Drake, San Angelo, Extension agronomists

10:00 Weed control, Peter Dotray, Extension weed science

10:30 Break

10:50 Alfalfa forage quality, staff

11:10 Insects in alfalfa, Pat Porter, Extension entomologist, Lubbock

11:30 Visit to drip irrigation alfalfa field, Randy McGee Farm, Idalou

12:30 PM Conclude

The $20 registration fee includes your alfalfa crop book containing NMSU, A&M, National Alfalfa Alliance publications (2 or more attending, $10 per person).

3.0 CEUs

For further information, contact

Lubbock Co. Ag. Extension Agent Robert Scott (806) 775-1680

Calvin Trostle, Texas AgriLife Extension Service agronomist, Lubbock, (806) 746-6101

Workshop e-mail contact: ctrostle@ag.tamu.edu